AGENDA ITEMS

1. Bixby Land Company:
Plan placed in last article of HG Happenings paper. Would like to recommend to Supervisor Tavaglione that we would like house instead of Commercial. Barney stated 68 acres is better having single-family residents. Resident Gary asked why is that better. Response was that is doesn't go with the flow to be commercial. Motion by Raina Boal and second by Mark Visyak to send a letter to Supervisor Tavaglione to change the zone to residential single-family homes.
2. Iowa Street overpass Dec 19th at 9:00 am the overpass is scheduled to be opened and dedicated.
3. Sheriff Report: Sheriff not present. Barney read in the paper there is a 39 million dollar Sheriff budget deficit.
4. In the Community: Mid 1990s Toyota ForRunner, white, with sun roof has been seen in the neighborhoods cruising around and has been associated with home break ins in the area. Has no running boards, possible chrome molding along bottom of the doors. The burglar has kicked in doors during day or night whether home or not.
5. County of Riverside Update: See attached
6. Request from County of who wants to stay on the MAC board. Everyone would like to stay on.
7. Comments of Board Members: Denis Kidd: Friends of Blue Mountain (FOBM) would like to raise $ 26,000.00 by the end on the year to purchase 10 more arcs and would give us 90 acre park.
8. Tony Mize: The Highgrove Apartments are slated to open in the end of September or early October of next year.
9. Melanie Zimmermann asked about the tractors and the time that they were still working at night. She also asked about the accessibility of the equipment to the community as there were children playing on the tractors. Melanie wants a sign up of residents. Tony Mize would like help to get a five-mile radius list of people who would like to be residents of this community.
10. Mark reported on the Burros. Not many being seen but did see about 9 of them. When he does he persuades them to Blue Mtn.

11. Raina would like to know about Graffiti Removal number: 951.955.3333.

12. Barney: Mother's Day weekend May 10, 2013 is our Highgrove Day this year. Barney will not be doing it this year. Nov 16 was the EDA tire pick up for the community. A total of 464 tires were brought to the school. Highgrove clean up day sometime in January.
